ROTARY CLUB OF DAYLESFORD

Induction of a new member: .....

- Bring candidate forward
- Formal induction ceremony

..... you have been invited to join the Rotary Club of Daylesford because we believe your qualities of character and leadership are those required of a good Rotarian.

The Object of Rotary has been explained to you by your sponsor and we are glad to accept your assurance that you are willing to give “Service Above Self” by working actively for the Club, for your vocation, for the community and for international goodwill.

You will be a representative of this Club in your classification, therefore the principles of Rotary will be known to that calling through you, and their application understood by your example.

We look forward with confidence to your participation in and contribution to this Club’s programs, projects and activities. Much is expected from you in help and inspiration to enable us to better serve society.

I congratulate you and offer you the hand of Rotary fellowship.

I now present you with your Dinner Badge to be worn at all Meetings and some publications worthy of reading.

I now also have pleasure in asking your sponsor –
..... to pin on your Rotary Lapel badge.

These badges are loaned to you for the duration of your membership with this club. They should be worn at all times with pleasure and pride.

..... will act as your mentor and he will guide you over the next six months.

Will you please stand and welcome ..... as the newest member of our Club.

Please be seated.
